

When a psychopath kills, he tries to erase all his clues, so that he can continue killing and evading justice.

However, the Zionist government does the opposite: it massacres and murders and does not bother to erase its tracks.

200 years will pass, and we will continue to see the photographs and videos of your massacres. 200 years will pass, and we will continue to find undisputed new testimonies of your repugnant crimes.

You have no escape. We know who you are, what you've done. We know everything.

We'll find you, even if you've hidden in the sewers, like rats.

We will find you, even if you have buried yourself in an abyss, in the desert, under a volcano.

We will never stop looking for you. For revenge or for justice... right now I don't know.

In any case, it has become clear: today the Israeli nation does not deserve to be a nation. Why? Because a people of executioners never deserves to be a nation

You're finished.

This is for you, Hind Rajab, our lovely little Rana.
